

1    ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

2           A window tab storage case has a hollow base, a holding tub received 3   inside the hollow base and a cap mounted on the hollow base. Between the 4   hollow base and the cap, there are openings defined in the window tab storage 5   case. The window tabs are received inside the window tab storage case, and the 6   tabs are taken from the opening.
